

How to Absolutely Get Your Book Written or Finished and Ready to Publish in 2010... Or Not

Reasons other authors say they haven't finished their book:

Don't have the time

Don't write well enough

Step 1: Spend hours, weeks, months - or sometimes even years - working on your book, trying to write it yourself

Get frustrated, lock it away in a desk drawer, work on it occasionally

Don't understand process

Always making changes

Look at alternative solutions - such as hiring a professional ghostwriter

Decision Time

Step 2: Eventually end up with a completed manuscript (maybe)

Step 2: Have a completed manuscript within 3 - 6 months

Step 3: Now you need a book proposal

My Unique System makes it easy and I do the heavy lifting for you:

- Initial Interview
- Book Idea Assessment
- 1 Hour Perfect Book Outline System™
- Goals, Marketability Analysis
- Outcomes Flowchart
- Scheduled Meetings at Your Convenience
- Milestones Timeline and Guaranteed Delivery
- Initial Draft
- Rewrite As Needed to Ensure Your Satisfaction
- Completed Manuscript

Find the time to do it yourself or pay a someone to do it for you

Already included as part of my services

Decision Time

Step 4: Find an agent or look at non-traditional publishing options

Build successful backend into your book

Spend time looking, sending out query letters, hope for the best

Consultation and research included as part of my services

Traditional method takes between 4-6 years total!

How many books never get written or published??

I don't just leave you hanging

Ask questions after project ends

Learn how to leverage results